

Registration is now open for KIWIDE (KIWI Development Education Programme)

Date: 18 – 22 November 2013

Venue: Fernz Lodge & Conference Centre, Birkenhead, Auckland

Brought to you by Credit Union Foundation Australia (CUFA) and your very own New Zealand Credit Union Foundation (NZCUF)

Attendees of this five day, life changing experience will learn about credit union's social responsibilities, co-operative principles, and local and international development through interactive education and professional networking.

Delegates will meet like-minded people who are committed to serving their credit unions in their communities, learn a lot and leave with great ideas to incorporate into everything they do to further the reach of their credit union in their community.

KIWIDE 2013 is open to everyone from new employees, who need to understand the credit union difference, to seasoned board, staff or volunteers who need to refocus or recharge.

There are many benefits to a credit union in sending delegates to this KIWI Development Education Program.

KIWIDE 2013 graduates will:

- Acquire new skills around creating credit union initiatives
- Develop problem solving, technical, team building & team leadership skills
- Develop the confidence and skills to execute powerful presentations
- Get to join a global networking group
- Develop understanding of local and international credit union issues
- Appreciate that credit unions grow stronger by working cooperatively
- Leave the program with a renewed understanding of how to promote cooperative principles and credit union values in today's highly competitive financial services sector
- Commit to a project that will give something back to the credit union movement

Sponsorship is available for New Zealand KIWIDE 2013 participants through the Colin Smith Memorial Fund (CSMF)

In 2013, by way of the CSMF every single credit union in New Zealand (that is a member of NZACU) is entitled to one sponsorship of $2,000, which will go a long way towards enabling each credit union to register at least one person on the program.

Sponsorship Offer closes 30 September 2013
